

Redemption completed!

Eternal perspective.

Victory obtained!

Enemies to overcome.

Lamb of God.

Adoration given.

Typical numbers.

Intense imagery.

Obvious messages.

Nations ruled.

What does Jesus' return mean to Him? "First and Last"/A-Z!
Even the judgments are Redemptive.

Psalm 73 "I envied the wicked...until I saw their end."
Heaven is for Real and it is eternal. Hell is for Real and it is eternal.

The Lamb has Overcome...and so will I.

When it appears that good is losing, that is not how it ends.

There are things that are seeking to destroy my soul.

Satan, False teachers, "Buy-Sell" and Sensuality

"Little Lamb" At His first coming, Jesus was the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. At His second coming, He is the Lamb of God who judges and rules the nations of the world.

The great Oratorios of Heaven! Ceaseless Praise!

NOT Numerology!

Symbols stand for realities; the reality is greater than the symbol.

The messages of Revelation are found in the Psalms, the OT prophets, the Gospels, and the Epistles. It's intensity is meant to sober us to the gravity of our situation and the people around us.

"Jesus is coming again. Be ready." "Repent."

The nations unite AGAINST God. The problem is not lack of knowledge about God, but rebellion against His rule.