

Questions to Meditate on for Moses Week Four

Use a journal to reflect and respond in more detail to the following questions.

Day One:

Moses' life was defined by the first excuse he gave God at the burning bush and God's response. "Who am I?" referred to his authority to lead the Israelites. "I will be with you" was God's promise of His presence.

List all the areas of authority God has given you in your life right now?

How do you spend time in God's presence? How has it changed your perspective from what is happening to you, to the bigger picture of what God is doing around you?

Day Two:

Read Romans 12:1-21. List the phrases that describe Moses' actions from the lesson.

In what ways do you see these qualities in your life? Are there any things keeping you from demonstrating these qualities?

Day Three:

Read Hebrews 13:17. Although God attested that Moses had His authority to be the leader of the Israelites, over and over they spoke against his leadership. Who were they really speaking against?

List all the people God has put in positions of authority over you right now. Include those from family relationships (parents/husband), political and educational institutions, and those in spiritual leadership. Do you ever find yourself speaking against them or complaining about their authority over you? Why is this a serious matter?

Day Four:

Read I Peter 5:2-11. List all the instructions for those put in a position of spiritual leadership. In what ways do you see these qualities in your life?
