

People of Faith: Moses

Timeline of Moses' Life

In less than a year, what changed Moses' perspective from being concerned about his inability and the Israelites' response, to being concerned about God's name and reputation, being willing to forgive and intercede for the Israelites, and not defending himself when unjustly accused? Exodus 24:18—"Moses entered the cloud and he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights." He had experienced being in the presence of God.
